

Leave our no call law alone! The citizens of Wisconsin do not wish to have their right to privacy and peaceful existence dismantled by the federal government, which, in my opinion, is once again out of line in its attempt to interfere.